These are all first class bulbs of the highest quality—no better bulbs at any price.

The same high class bulbs from the same high class Holland growers as we sold last year. Thousands of delighted customers this spring.

Miss Pearl Liedblad of 26 Cook Ave., Jamestown, N. Y., writes under date of June 3rd. "I am glad to tell you that I have never seen more gorgeous or perfect tulips and they have received the admiration and envy of all who have seen them. Several of my friends have inquired where I bought the bulbs, and voiced their intention of sending for some in the fall."

Mr. J. E. McIntosh, Hardware dealer, Heuvelton, N. Y., writes under date of June 11th. "Last year I bought 100 tulip bulbs for $3.50. I never saw such wonderful tulips. The stalks are 20 and 22 inches high and wonderful colors. All my neighbors ask where we bought these bulbs and we told them "Glen Brothers, Rochester, N. Y.," and they took your address. Have you any more bulbs for Fall planting? How much per 100? I want some more of these and my neighbors all want some. Will you send us price list for Fall and other bulbs you have?"

Send no money now but send your order and bulbs will be shipped in time for Fall planting. The price is only $3.50 per hundred cash on delivery but if you insist on paying now, deduct 5% cash discount.

Select Your Varieties From the Following List :

FALL is the real time to plant. The ground is in much better condition in the Fall, being mellow and warm.

Before Spring, stock which has been planted in the fall gets well established in its new position and so gets an early start and makes a large growth in the first season, while stock planted in the Spring loses considerable valuable time in getting established in its new quarters.

Stock is completely dormant in the Fall, and, therefore, can be easily and safely handled, while in the Spring the weather often comes off warm so early as to start the buds seriously before the customer can receive and plant his stock.

Stock planted in the Fall gets the benefit of the late Fall and early Spring rains, which is of vital importance; on the contrary, stock set in the Spring frequently has to worry through a dry Summer, which it is utterly unprepared to do after having been so newly transplanted. The result is that its growth is stunted.

Many extensive and experienced planters, like the late horticultural writer, E. P. Roe, always prefer to plant in the Fall.

We reprint below Mr. Ernest Spencer's letter received December 7th

ERNEST SPENCER
436 South 7th Avenue, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
Messrs. Glen Bros., Rochester, N. Y. December 5, 1925.
Gentlemen: The Lambert Cherry Tree was planted in 15 minutes after I received it and four guy wires placed to steady it so the wind and storm will not move it. The tree is a wonder, so large and beautiful. It was received on October 12 at 5 P.M. Also the Yellow Gage Plum, something most beautiful, and very large in size and the three apple trees, all planted on arrival and braced for protection and a straw mulch will be placed around them a little later on. Some time ago I purchased two quince, a cherry and a Hyslop Crab Apple tree from you. Let me thank you over and over as the trees are loaded with fruit each year, no let up at all. The Crab Apple is a beauty to behold with their red cheeks and its limbs loaded. I stand sometimes and think of you and I am ever so thankful that I bought from your nurseries. My asparagus bed is a wonderful producer—large stalks and plenty of them.
Let me thank you again and will recommend you whenever possible.

Yours truly, ERNEST SPENCER

Special Summer Collection of Twelve Beautiful Shrubs for $5.00

Make Your Grounds As Attractive As Your House

All 2-Years Old—Well Rooted—Bushy
Plant More Flowering Shrubs

THIS OFFER GOOD TO SEPT. 1st, 1926

One Plant Each of the Following List for $5.00

Butterfly Bush: (Summer Lilac). The name Butterfly Bush was applied to it because it seems to attract the large, gorgeously colored butterflies that swarm about it as though vieing with it in brilliancy of color. A single plant the first season will throw out as many as 50 flower spikes.

Red Barked Dogwood: Spreading Shrub, 8 to 10 feet tall, with purple or dark blood-red branches, deep green leaves that are hairy on both sides, and greenish white flowers in flat-topped clusters, berries black.

Coral Berry: The conspicuous ornamental feature of this plant is the wealth of plump red fruits that are clustered along the arching branches until late winter.

Spirea Van Houttei: Better known and more largely planted than any other shrub. An extremely graceful shrub with long, drooping branches completely covered with flat clusters of white flowers in May and June. Cannot be too highly recommended. We consider it the best general-purpose shrub. Grows 6 to 8 feet high.

Tartarian Upright Honeysuckle: Bears a profusion of bright pink flowers in the spring, followed by orange scarlet berries.

Siberian Pea Shrub: A large shrub with compound leaves, consisting of 8 to 12 bright green leaflets. Native of Siberia. Flowers yellow, in numerous small clusters, in late spring.

Forsythia: (Golden Bell). Rich golden yellow flowers are borne in great profusion along the branches before the leaves appear.

Hydrangea Hortensis: An upright shrub, usually 4 to 8 feet tall, with bright green leaves. Flowers creamy white, generally with a few sterile rays, borne in numerous flat-topped clusters in early summer. Hardy and attractive.

Yucca: (Adam's Needle). A handsome evergreen plant with swordlike foliage, with spikes of fragrant drooping bell-shaped creamy white flowers during June and July, making a tropical effect.

Sweet Syringa: Popular ornamental deciduous shrub that will add attractiveness and fragrance to the home gardens.

Deutzia Pride of Rochester: A shrub that delights the eye with its large double white flowers which are tinged with pink in the bud.

White Tartarian Honeysuckle: A beautiful white variety with a profusion of bright red berries ripening in summer and persisting until Autumn.
